To Study Soviet System

CPYRGHT

Seven members of the House of Representatives, headed by Rep. Edith Green (D-Ore.), chairman of a Special Subcommittee on Education, leave today for the Soviet Union to study educational planning in the medical field and the supply of drugs available to the Russian people.

The group will be accompanied by Mrs. Jim G. Akin of the Congressional Liaison Office for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, who will also study Russia's social security system and any plans for revision, together with its environmental health plans and programs.

In addition to Mrs. Green, the following Representatives will make the trip: Robert N. Giaimo (D-Conn.), John Brandemas (D-Ind.), Neal Smith (D-Iowa), Albert H. Quie (R-Minn.), Charles E. Goodell (R-N. Y.) and Peter A. Garland (R-Me.).
